

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LIST OF TABLES .....	7
ABBREVIATIONS AND ACRONYMS .....	8
FOREWORD .....	13
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS .....	15
INTRODUCTION .....	17
Research questions .....	22
Theoretical framework .....	23
Methodology .....	26
Outline of the study .....	27
SECTION A – CONCEPTUAL AND ANALYTICAL FRAMEWORK .....	29
Chapter II – The Context .....	29
The Bolivarian process in Venezuela .....	29
The decline of the Fourth Republic .....	29
The Three Stages of the Bolivarian Process in Venezuela .....	32
Bolivarian Venezuela: an aborted counter-hegemonic process .....	41
Education in Venezuela prior to the Bolivarian process .....	44
Conclusions .....	50
Chapter III – Literature Review .....	52
Venezuelan literature .....	54
International literature .....	59
Conclusions .....	61
Chapter IV – Theoretical Framework .....	63
Gramsci’s concept of hegemony .....	63
Gramsci’s thinking on education .....	69
Hegemony and education .....	69
The school and progressive education .....	71
Gramsci’s materialist conception of education .....	73
The reception of Gramsci’s educational thinking .....	73
The contribution of the Gramscian approach to this study .....	77
Jonathan Joseph’s critical realist approach to hegemony .....	78
Weaknesses of Joseph’s approach .....	82
The contribution of Joseph’s dual hegemony conception to this study .....	83
A dependency theory approach to education in transition states .....	85
The contribution of the dependency theory framework to this study .....	90
The impact of globalisation on state-education-society relationships .....	92
The state and the Latin American post-neoliberal transformation processes .....	94
Contributions of the current debates on globalisation, education and the state to this study .....	97
Conclusions .....	98

Chapter V – Methodological Approaches .....	101
Ontological and epistemological reflections .....	101
Methodological approaches .....	104
Research process .....	106
Data collection and analysis .....	111
Moral concerns .....	113
Conclusions .....	114
SECTION B – MOVING INTO THE FIELD .....	115
Chapter VI – Reclaiming Bolívar: education as a conceptual and political battlefield .....	115
Education reconceptualised .....	115
Bolivarian education policies – a political battlefield .....	121
Conclusions .....	128
Chapter VII – Education Policies in Bolivarian Venezuela .....	131
Education policies in the formal school sector .....	132
The Bolivarian schools .....	132
Achievements, shortcomings and challenges .....	136
The Education Missions .....	142
Achievements, shortcomings, and challenges .....	145
Bolivarian higher education policies .....	148
Creation of an alternative system .....	149
Striving for a counter-hegemonic regional education space .....	154
New admissions regulations .....	156
Achievements, shortcomings and challenges .....	157
Conclusions .....	160
Chapter VIII – Hegemony and Bolivarian Education Policies: Between Popular Empowerment and Social Reproduction .....	163
Popular empowerment through Bolivarian education policies .....	163
The symbolic level – undermining the symbolic power of elite education .....	164
Empowerment through the expansion of participation in education .....	167
Empowerment through the creation of new state-citizenship relationships ..	170
Continued reproduction of social stratification through the education system .....	177
Formal schooling: limited attention to universalisation of reforms .....	177
Higher education: Hierarchical parallelism .....	181
The struggle over the definition of quality in education .....	184
Conclusions .....	189
CONCLUSION .....	195
EPILOGUE .....	201
REFERENCES .....	207
APPENDIX – LIST OF INTERVIEWS, INTERVIEW CONVERSATIONS AND PARTICIPANT OBSERVATIONS .....	232